GOP Comptroller Candidate to Speak to Young Republicans

Hyde Park – Republican candidate for county comptroller, James Coughlan will speak to the Dutchess County Young Republicans at their June 23rd meeting at the Hyde Park Brewery on Route 9 in Hyde Park. Coughlan, a patent attorney with international finance experience, lives with his wife in Rhinecliff.

There will be food and drink, and the club encourages new members to come for the social networking opportunities to meet the members of the club and the county comptroller candidate. The club meeting will begin at 7pm and will include a brief business meeting to elect offices for the year. The club's plans for a fun evening of glow-in-the-dark night golf on July 17th will also be discussed. For details on the night golf outing see <http://www.facebook.com/home.php#/event.php?eid=75366014019&ref=mf>.

The Dutchess County Young Republicans is a network of the young and young-at-heart registered Republicans who believe in public service and in the proven platform of the Republican Party in bettering the quality of life of Dutchess County and beyond.
